

2017 Disneyland Holiday Checklist:

- ☞ Go on Haunted Mansion Holiday - see what happens when two holidays collide!
- ☞ Visit It's a Small World Holiday ride - around 250,000 lights have been added to the outside of the ride and 30,000 to the inside.
- ☞ Go on the "Jingle" Cruise - special Christmas decorations are added to the Jungle Cruise (along with a few extra funny holiday jokes from the tour guides).
- ☞ Watch the "A Christmas Fantasy Parade" - this is a must see for Christmas time in Disneyland.
- ☞ See the castle lighting with snow each night at 5:30pm. Ask a cast member to confirm the time for you, sometimes these can vary.
- ☞ See the 3 minute projection show at it's a small world every 15 minutes starting at 5:15 pm-until the park closes each evening.
- ☞ Watch the amazing "Believe... In Holiday Magic!" Fireworks - a special holiday firework show.
- ☞ After the firework show be sure to stay around for the lighting ceremony at the castle which includes a brief "snow fall" of gingerbread scented snow.
- ☞ Watch the tree lighting ceremony. Both parks have tree lighting ceremonies at 5pm every day. Carolers walk the parks with hand bells, singing carols while the gorgeous trees light up!
- ☞ See the World of Color - Season of Light show - a completely new holiday show for the 2017 holiday season!
- ☞ Watch the Disney iViva Navidad! a celebration of Latino holiday culture taking place in the Paradise Garden area of Disney California Adventure.
- ☞ Attend the Phineas and Ferb Dance Party Holiday Edition - located in California Adventure. Your kids will love this!
- ☞ Meet Santa at The Redwood Creek Challenge Trail in California Adventure. If you make Santa's nice list, you can discover your secret elf name!
- ☞ Also at the Redwood Creek Challenge have fun on a winter themed playground with games and outdoor fun.
- ☞ Play in REAL snow at Meet Olaf Himself located at the Olaf Snow Fest in Hollywood and California Adventure.
- ☞ Eat a Yule Log at the Plaza Inn - a classic, delicious holiday treat!
- ☞ Eat the Peppermint Stick Ice Cream with Crushed Candy Cane Waffle Cone - located at the Gibson Girl Cafe on Main Street.
- ☞ Eat a candy cane at Candy Palace on Main Street or Trolley Treats in Disney California Adventure. They are homemade and only a few small batches a day. They are so popular that guests can only buy two each.
- ☞ Take a walk down Main Street and soak up the Holiday magic. After all, Disneyland pumps Christmas peppermint smells into Main Street during the holidays. Who would want to miss that?
- ☞ Walk through Cars Land and Buena Vista Street and see the 50 ft. tall Christmas tree, and Cars inspired Christmas trees made of tires, hubcaps and cones down Route 66.
- ☞ Visit the Disneyland Resort hotels (Disney's Grand Californian Hotel, Disneyland Hotel, and Paradise Pier Hotel) and get in the Christmas spirit with the decorations and entertainment.
- ☞ Eat Christmas Dinner with Mickey at Paradise Pier's PCH Grill.
- ☞ Visit the gingerbread creation of the Grand Californian Hotel.
- ☞ Visit the gingerbread creation of Sleeping Beauty's Castle in the Disneyland Hotel.
- ☞ Go Ice Skating at Olaf's Frozen Ice Rink in Downtown Disney.
